

Where was God?
Why did this happen?

Abuse survivors have difficult questions. If you are a survivor of childhood or adolescent abuse, you are a person who is wounded. The damage is physical, emotional, relational, and Spiritual. Some of the difficult questions you have may involve God and your own Spiritual health.

Committed to Freedom Ministries offers Spiritual tools to help survivors of childhood or adolescent abuse, especially sexual abuse, move beyond their abuse experiences. We do this through various programs.

We offer retreats for women, retreats for men, seminars for survivors and their support network, training seminars for clergy and lay leadership, self-help curriculum, support group studies, and other sources of information and encouragement.

We follow Christ's example, reflecting the peace, love, and hope that Jesus taught. We will never use Christianity or Scripture as a weapon. We offer these programs with respect, sensitivity, and tolerance for all who have been wounded by abuse.
